

Critical Inquiry Course Implementation Timeline

Program Objectives	Projected Completion Date
Selection of the first-year reading	2009-2010 Academic Year
Announcement of first-year reading	Last Faculty Assembly Meeting (April 2010)
Faculty interest session for the CI course <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Session would be open to any faculty member who might be interested in teaching the CI course.</li> <li>- The session would include general information about the course, faculty development and expectations, and an opportunity to ask and answer questions.</li> </ul>	Late April or early May 2010
Faculty selection <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Members of Academic Council and the Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs.</li> </ul>	Late spring/summer 2010
Establish an advisory board <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The board would be formed by the Academic Success Center, in consultation with the Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, and consist mostly of faculty.</li> <li>- The board would be given the charge of guiding course implementation and faculty development and training.</li> </ul>	Late spring/summer 2010
Faculty workshop <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- This workshop is for faculty teaching the CI course in the fall, and will provide faculty with an opportunity to: identify any additional course texts or materials, develop and/or norm course rubrics, and discuss and organize class projects.</li> </ul>	Fall 2010/Spring 2011
Sections of CI course scheduled	Spring 2011
Recruitment and selection of Peer Leaders	Spring 2011
Faculty development session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- This workshop should address the active and engaging pedagogy associated with the CI course.</li> </ul>	Summer 2011
Establish first-year reading blog for CI courses	Summer 2011
Faculty development (learning community) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Ongoing workshops, development opportunities, and an open forum to discuss and reflect on experiences teaching the course.</li> </ul>	Fall 2011
Recruitment of CI faculty for spring and fall	Fall 2011